Neutral Range

Our neutral range of handbags are a combination of black faux leather and a hessian textured fabric with black suede florals and patterns. Various designs are available in each of the four colours shown here, namely beige, light grey, dark grey and brown. The front of the bag is finished off with various beaded or fringed embellishments.

Each handbag is lined with a corresponding colour in tafetta and has one pocket on the inside.

Original creations

Brights Range

Our Brights range of bags are larger in size and are made from wipeable quantec fabric available in many various prints and colour combinations. Faux leather accents in beige, white, black, silver and copper are used as well as various beading embellishments.

Each bag is lined with a coloured tafetta lining and has two pockets on the inside.

All the bags shown on this leaflet are hand made.

Baby Bag

The Baby bag shown here is also made from wipeable quantec fabric and copper faux leather accents. The bag contains lining as well as many inner and outer pockets, a changing mat and beaded embellishments.
